ELIGIBILITY TO PARTICIPATE

Subject to any applicable law and the absolute discretion of the Board noted below, all shareholders are eligible to participate in the Plan.

However, the Board in its absolute discretion may determine that shareholders are not eligible to participate in the Plan if they have registered addresses in a country or place where the offer of a right to participate would or might be unlawful, impossible or impracticable. The Board has exercised this discretion to determine that shareholders with registered addresses outside Australia or New Zealand are not eligible to participate in the Plan.

SUMMARY OF TAX POSITION

Residents:

Under the DRP, participating resident shareholders use the relevant dividend the subject of the DRP paid on participating shares to subscribe for additional fully paid ordinary shares in Boundary Bend Limited. For taxation purposes, shares received under the DRP are treated as though the shareholder had received a cash dividend and then paid it back to Boundary Bend Limited to subscribe for new shares. The Company's understanding is that:

- (i) shares received under the DRP are treated as having been purchased by the reinvestment of cash dividends for the purposes of the Australian dividend imputation system. A participant in the DRP will therefore be subject to tax on the same basis as a recipient of cash dividends. Accordingly, where the Company declares "franked dividends", a participant in the DRP will be treated as receiving franked dividends to which "franking credits" (i.e. tax credits) attach for Australian income tax purposes. "Top-up tax" may be payable at the difference between the corporate tax rate of 30% upon which the franking rebate is based and the individual marginal tax rate of the relevant shareholder;
- (ii) shares received under the DRP will, in general, be subject to Australian capital gains tax upon disposal, regardless of whether the Boundary Bend Limited shares in respect of which they are issued were acquired by the participating shareholder before, on or after 20 September 1985. The cost base of the shares received under the DRP will be calculated for capital gains tax purposes on the basis they were acquired at a cost equal to the cash value of the dividend which is applied to pay for the shares. The acquisition date for capital gains tax purposes will be the date of issue of the shares under the DRP.

Non Residents:

A non-resident shareholder should not be subject to Australian tax on receipt of the relevant dividend the subject of the Plan. A non-resident is not able to make use of franking credits to reduce Australian tax on other income. In addition, a non-resident will not be subject to dividend withholding tax on the relevant dividend to the extent that the dividend is franked. If the dividend is not franked, dividend withholding tax at the rate of 30% (or, if paid to a resident of a country with which Australia has a double tax agreement, the lower rate specified in the agreement) will be withheld from the dividend and paid to the Australian Taxation Office. The capital gains tax consequences of participation by a non-resident in the Plan would be as described above for residents, although most non-residents would not in any event be subject to Australian capital gains tax in respect of their Boundary Bend Limited shares.

Independent Tax Advice:

The above comments concerning the taxation position of shareholders are necessarily general in nature and shareholders should seek and rely upon their own taxation advice in relation to the Plan.

The precise taxation position of a shareholder under the Plan will depend upon the particular circumstances of the shareholder. Specifically, this summary does not address taxation issues relevant to shareholders in special circumstances, such as share traders or persons carrying on an investment business. The sole purpose of this summary is to outline the basic features of the Plan. Shareholders should not rely upon this summary for taxation purposes, and neither the Company nor any of its officers or advisers accepts liability or responsibility in respect of any statement concerning taxation consequences, or in respect of the taxation consequences themselves.

Notwithstanding the formula in this clause, the Board in its absolute discretion may determine the maximum number of additional Shares which can be acquired with the Distribution Amount by each Participant. Where any law requires on any occasion the payment of any amount in respect of an issue of Shares to a Participant under the DRP, that amount is to be deducted from the sum which would, but for the Participation of the Participant, be available for payment to the Participant and paid by the Company as required by that law.
