BOUNDARY BEND LIMITED - Constitution

1 Share Capital and Variation of Rights

1.1 Directors to Issue Shares

The issue of shares in the Company is under the control of the Directors who:

- (a) may issue or dispose of shares to any person at any time and on any terms and conditions and having attached to them any preferred, deferred or other special rights or restrictions, whether with regard to dividend, voting, return of capital or otherwise, as the Directors think fit;
- (b) may grant to any person an option over shares or pre-emptive rights at any time and for any consideration they think fit; and
- (c) have the right to settle the manner in which fractions of a share, however arising, are to be dealt with,

subject to the Corporations Act and any special rights conferred on the holders of any shares or class of shares.

1.2 Issue of Shares

The Company in general meeting may, prior to the issue of any new shares, determine that all or any of them shall be offered in the first instance to all existing Members or to any particular class of shareholder in proportion to the capital respectively held by them.

1.3 Class Meetings

The provisions of this Constitution relating to general meetings apply so far as they are capable of application and with any necessary changes to every separate meeting of the holders of a class of shares.

1.4 Non-Recognition of Interests

Except as required by law, the Company is not required to recognise:

- (a) a person as holding a share on any trust; or
- (b) any other interest in any share or any other right in respect of a share except an absolute right of ownership in the registered holder, whether or not it has notice of the trust, interest or right.

1.5 Joint Holders of Shares

Where two or more persons are registered as the joint holders of shares:

- (a) they are taken to hold the shares as joint tenants with rights of survivorship; and
- (b) they and their respective personal representatives are liable both jointly and severally for all payments, including calls, which ought to be made in respect of the shares; but
- (c) the Company is not bound:
 - (i) to register more than three persons as joint holders of a share; or
 - (ii) to issue more than one certificate or holding statement in respect of shares jointly held.

1.6 Employee Securities Plan

The Directors may:

- (a) implement an employee securities plan on such terms as they think fit under which securities of the Company or of a related body corporate or options to subscribe for such securities may be issued or otherwise provided to or for the benefit of any employee or class of employees (including any Director) of the Company or of a related body corporate or to an associate of that employee (including a company or trust in which that employee or an associate has an interest);
- (b) amend, suspend or terminate any employee securities plan implemented by them; and
- (c) give financial assistance in connection with the acquisition of securities of the Company or of a related body corporate under any employee securities plan in any way permitted by the Corporations Act.

Any employee securities plan in effect at the time of adoption of this Constitution continues in effect subject to this Constitution.

2 Lien

2.1 Lien on Shares

The Company has a first and paramount lien on every share for:

- (a) all due and unpaid calls and instalments in respect of that share;
- (b) all money which the Company has been called on by law to pay, and has paid, in respect of that share;
- (c) interest at the Prescribed Interest Rate on the amount due from the date it becomes due until payment; and
- (d) reasonable expenses of the Company in respect of the default in payment.

2.2 Lien on Loans Under Employee Securities Plans

The Company also has a first and paramount lien on each share registered in the name of the Member for all money payable to the Company by the Member for acquiring such shares under an employee securities plan.

2.3 Lien on Distributions

A lien on a share under Article 2.1 or 2.2 extends to all distributions in respect of that share, including dividends.

2.4 Exemption from Lien

The Directors may at any time exempt a share wholly or in part from the provisions of Articles 2.1, 2.2 or 2.3.

2.5 Extinguishment of Lien

The Company's lien on a share is extinguished if a transfer of the share is registered without the Company giving notice of the lien to the transferee.

2.6 Company's Rights to Recover Payments

A Member must reimburse the Company on demand in writing for all payments the Company makes to a government or taxing authority in respect of the Member, the death of a Member, the Member's shares or any distributions on the Member's shares, including dividends, where the Company is either:

- (a) obliged by law to make the relevant payment; or
- (b) advised by a lawyer qualified to practice in the jurisdiction of the relevant government or taxing authority that the Company is obliged by law to make the relevant payment.

The Company is not obliged to advise the Member in advance of the Company's intention to make the payment.

2.7 Reimbursement is a Debt Due

The obligation of the Member to reimburse the Company under Article 2.6 is a debt due to the Company as if it were a call on all of the Member's shares duly made at the time when the written demand for reimbursement is given by the Company to the Member. The provisions of this Constitution relating to non-payment of calls, including payment of interest and sale of the Member's shares under lien, apply to the debt.

2.8 Sale Under Lien

Subject to Article 2.9, the Company may sell, in any manner the Directors think fit, any share on which the Company has a lien.

2.9 Limitations on Sale Under Lien

A share on which the Company has a lien may not be sold by the Company unless:

- (a) an amount in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable; and
- (b) the Company has, not less than 14 days before the date of sale, given to the registered holder of the share or the person entitled to the share under Articles 7.1, 7.3, 7.4 or 7.5 a notice in writing setting out, and demanding payment of, the amount which is presently payable in respect of which the lien exists.

2.10 Transfer on Sale Under Lien

For the purpose of giving effect to a sale under Article 2.8, the Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share so sold and may execute a transfer of the share sold in favour of the purchaser of the share, or do all such other things as may be necessary or appropriate for it to do to effect the transfer. The purchaser is not bound to see to the application of the purchase money.

2.11 Irregularity or Invalidity

The title of the purchaser to a share sold under Article 2.8 or transferred under Article 2.10 is not affected by any irregularity or invalidity in connection with the sale of the share.

2.12 Proceeds of Sale

The proceeds of a sale under Article 2.8 must be applied by the Company in payment of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue, if any, must be paid to the person entitled to the share immediately before the sale.

3 Calls on Shares

3.1 Directors May Make Calls

The Directors may:

- (a) make calls on a Member in respect of any money unpaid on the shares of that Member, and not by the terms of issue of those shares made payable at fixed times;
- (b) make a call payable by instalments; and
- (c) revoke or postpone a call.

3.2 Time of Call

A call is taken to be made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising the call is passed.

3.3 Members' Liability

Each Member must, upon receiving not less than 10 Business Days notice specifying the time or times and place of payment, pay to the Company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on that Member's shares.

3.4 Joint Holders' Liability

The joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of the share.

3.5 Non-Receipt of Notice

The non-receipt of a notice of any call by, or the accidental omission to give notice of a call to, a Member does not invalidate the call.

3.6 Interest on Default

If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment of the sum, the person from whom the sum is due must pay interest on the sum to the time of actual payment at the Prescribed Interest Rate. The Directors may waive payment of that interest wholly or in part.

3.7 Fixed Instalments

Any sum that, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable on issue of the share or at a fixed date, is to be taken to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the sum becomes payable. In the case of non-payment, all the relevant provisions of this Constitution as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise apply as if the sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

3.8 Differentiation Between Shareholders

The Directors may, on the issue of shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.

3.9 Prepayment of Calls and Interest

The Directors may:

- (a) accept from a Member the whole or a part of the amount unpaid on a share although no part of that amount has been called;
- (b) authorise payment by the Company of interest on the whole or any part of an amount so accepted, until the amount becomes payable, at such rate, not exceeding the Prescribed Interest Rate, as is agreed on between the Directors and the Member paying the sum; and
- (c) repay to a Member all or any of an amount accepted under paragraph (a).

4 Forfeiture of Shares

4.1 Notice Requiring Payment of Call

If a Member fails to pay a call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment of the call or instalment, the Directors may, at any time afterwards during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, give a notice to the Member requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest that has accrued and all costs and expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of that non-payment.

4.2 Contents of Notice

A notice given under Article 4.1 must name a further day, not earlier than the expiration of 14 days from the date of service of the notice, on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made and must state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

4.3 Forfeiture for Failure to Comply with Notice

A share in respect of which a notice under Article 4.1 has not been complied with may at any time, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect.

4.4 Dividends and Distributions included in Forfeiture

A forfeiture under Article 4.3 includes all dividends and other distributions declared or to be made in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid or distributed before the forfeiture.

4.5 Sale or Re-Issue of Forfeited Shares

Subject to the Corporations Act, a share forfeited under Article 4.3 may be sold, re-issued or otherwise disposed of to whom and on such terms as the Directors think fit.

4.6 Notice of Forfeiture

If any share is forfeited under Article 4.3 notice of the forfeiture must be given to the Member holding the share immediately before the forfeiture and an entry of the forfeiture and its date must be made in the Register.

4.7 Surrender Instead of Forfeiture

The Directors may accept the surrender of any share which they are entitled to forfeit on any terms they think fit and any share so surrendered is taken to be a forfeited share.

4.8 Cancellation of Forfeiture

At any time before a sale or disposition of a share, the forfeiture of that share may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors think fit.

4.9 Effect of Forfeiture

A person whose shares have been forfeited:

- (a) ceases to be a Member in respect of the forfeited shares and loses all entitlement to dividends and other distributions or entitlements on the shares; and
- (b) remains liable to pay the Company all money that, at the date of forfeiture, was payable by that person to the Company in respect of the forfeited shares, plus interest at the Prescribed Interest Rate from the date of forfeiture and also reasonable expenses of sale.

4.10 Evidence of Forfeiture

A statement in writing declaring that the person making the statement is a director or a secretary of the Company, and that a share in the Company has been forfeited in accordance with this Constitution on the date stated in the statement, is prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the statement as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.

4.11 Transfer of Forfeited Share

The Company may receive the consideration (if any) given for a forfeited share on any sale or disposition of the share and may execute or effect a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of.

4.12 Registration of Transferee

On the execution of the transfer, the transferee must be registered as the holder of the share and is not bound to see to the application of any money paid as consideration.

4.13 Irregularity or Invalidity

The title of a transferee under Article 4.11 to the share is not affected by any irregularity or invalidity in connection with the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.

4.14 Forfeiture Applies to Non-Payment of Instalment

The provisions of this Constitution as to forfeiture apply in the case of non-payment of any sum that, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, as if that sum had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

5 Indemnity by Members

5.1 Indemnity for Taxation

If the Company becomes liable under any law to make any payment:

- (a) in respect of shares held solely or jointly by a Member;
- (b) in respect of a transfer or transmission of shares by a Member;
- (c) in respect of any dividends, bonuses or other money due or payable or which may become due or payable to a Member; or
- (d) otherwise for, or on account of, or in respect of, a Member,

whether as a consequence of:

- (e) the death of that Member;
- (f) the non-payment of any income tax, capital gains tax, wealth tax or other tax by that Member or the personal representative of that Member;
- (g) the non-payment of any estate, probate, succession, death, stamp or other duty by that Member or the personal representative of that Member; or
- (h) any other act or thing, then, in addition to any right or remedy the Company may have at all or otherwise:

- (i) the Member or the Member's personal representative must fully indemnify the Company against the liability of the Company to make the payment and must reimburse the Company for any payment made immediately after demand for the payment has been made by the Company, together with interest at the Prescribed Interest Rate on the amount paid by the Company from the date of the payment until the date on which the Company is reimbursed in full;
- (j) the Company has a lien upon all dividends, interest and other money payable in respect of the shares held solely or jointly by the Member or the Member's personal representative for all money payable to the Company under this Article 5.1; and
- (k) the Company may refuse to register a transfer of any shares by or to the Member or the Member's personal representative until all money payable to the Company under this Article 5.1 has been paid,

but the Directors may:

- (l) exempt a share from the application of all or any part of this Article 5.1; and

- (m) waive all or any part of a payment due to the Company under this Article 5.1.

6 Transfer of Shares

6.1 Forms of Instrument of Transfer

Subject to this Constitution, shares in the Company are transferable:

- (a) by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or in any other form that the Directors approve; or
- (b) by any other method of transfer of marketable securities which is approved by the Directors.

6.2 Execution and Delivery of Transfer

If an instrument of transfer is to be used to transfer a share in accordance with paragraph 6.1(a), it must be:

- (a) a proper instrument of transfer within the meaning of the Corporations Act;
- (b) executed by or on behalf of both the transferor and the transferee unless it is a sufficient transfer of marketable securities within the meaning of the Corporations Act; and
- (c) left for registration at the share registry of the Company, accompanied by the information the Directors properly require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer, and in that event the Company must, subject to the powers vested in the Directors by this Constitution, register the transferee as the holder of the share.

6.3 Effect of Registration

A transferor of shares remains the holder of the shares transferred until the transfer is registered and the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect of the shares and a transfer of shares does not pass the right to any dividends declared on the shares until registration.

6.4 Company to Register Forms Without Charge

The Company must register all registrable transfer forms, split certificates, renunciations and transfers, issue certificates and transmission receipts and mark or note transfer forms without charge except where the issue of a certificate is to replace a lost or destroyed certificate.

6.5 Power to Refuse to Register

The Directors may refuse to register a transfer of other shares in the Company.

6.6 Written Notice of Refusal

If, in the exercise of their rights under Article 6.5, the Directors refuse to register a transfer of a security they must give written notice of the request or refusal within 5 Business Days to the holder of the security, the transferee and the broker lodging the transfer (if any). Failure to give such notice does not invalidate the decision of the Directors.

6.7 Company to Retain Instrument of Transfer

The Company must retain every instrument of transfer which is registered for such period as the Directors determine.

6.8 Refusal to Register

If the Directors refuse registration of a transfer, the transfer must be returned to the person who deposited it if demand is made within 12 months of the giving of notice of refusal to register unless there has been an allegation of fraud concerning the transfer or the transaction to which it relates.

7 Transmission of Shares

7.1 Death of Member

If a Member (who does not own shares jointly) dies, the Company will recognise only the personal representative of the Member as being entitled to the Member's interest in the shares.

7.2 Information Given by Personal Representative

- (a) If the personal representative gives the Directors the information they reasonably require to establish the representative's entitlement to be registered as a holder of the shares, the personal representative:
 - (i) may:
 - (A) by giving a written and signed notice to the Company, elect to be registered as the holder of the shares; or
 - (B) by giving a completed transfer form to the Company, transfer the shares to another person; and
 - (ii) is entitled, whether or not registered as the holder of the shares, to the same rights as the Member.
- (b) On receiving an election under paragraph (a)(i)(A), the Company must register the personal representative as the holder of the shares.
- (c) A transfer under paragraph (a)(i)(B) is subject to the provisions of this Constitution that apply to transfers generally.

7.3 Death of Joint Owner

If a Member who owns shares jointly dies, the Company will recognise only the surviving joint holder as being entitled to the Member's interest in the shares. The estate of the Member is not released from any liability in respect of the shares.

7.4 Bankruptcy

- (a) If a person entitled to shares because of the bankruptcy of a Member gives the Directors the information they reasonably require to establish the person's entitlement to be registered as holder of the shares, the person may:
 - (i) by giving a written and signed notice to the Company, elect to be registered as the holder of the shares; or
 - (ii) by giving a completed transfer form to the Company, transfer the shares to another person.
- (b) On receiving an election under paragraph (a)(i), the Company must register the person as the holder of the shares.

The number of clear days from the giving of a notice postponing the holding of a general meeting to the date specified in that notice for the holding of the postponed meeting must not be less than the number of clear days notice of the general meeting required to be given by this Constitution or the Corporations Act.

9.9 Business at Postponed Meeting

The only business that may be transacted at a general meeting the holding of which is postponed is the business specified in the notice convening the meeting.

9.15 Electronic Lodgment of Proxies, Attorneys and Representatives

The Directors may permit proxy, attorney or Representative appointments to be lodged electronically and, subject to any applicable law, may determine what will constitute acceptable authentication or signing of proxy, attorney or Representative appointments for the purpose of electronic lodgment, and may determine such other incidental matters or procedures as are necessary or desirable to permit or facilitate electronic lodgment of proxy, attorney or Representative appointments.

10.3 Requirement for a Quorum

An item of business may not be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to consider it. If a quorum is present at the beginning of a meeting it is taken to be present throughout the meeting unless the chairperson of the meeting (on the chairperson's own motion or at the instance of a Member, proxy, attorney or Representative who is present) declares otherwise.

10.4 Quorum and Time

If, within 30 minutes after the time appointed for a meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting:

- (a) if convened by a Director, or at the request of Members, is dissolved; and
- (b) in any other case stands adjourned to the same day in the next week and the same time and place or to such other day, time and place as the Directors appoint by notice to the Members and others entitled to notice of the meeting.

10.5 Adjourned Meeting and a decision by the chairperson under this Article 10.8 is final.

10.9 Adjournment of General Meeting

- (a) The chairperson of a general meeting may, at any time during the meeting, adjourn the meeting or any business, motion, question, resolution, debate or discussion being considered or remaining to be considered by the meeting either to a later time at the same meeting or to an adjourned meeting at any time and any place.

10.13 Declaration of Results

At any general meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is properly demanded and the demand is not withdrawn. A declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company, is conclusive evidence of the fact. Neither the chairperson nor the minutes need state and it is not necessary to prove the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

10.14 Poll

- (a) If a poll is properly demanded, it must be taken in the manner and at the date and time directed by the chairperson and the result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- (b) No poll shall be demanded for the election of a chairperson.
- (c) A poll demanded on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.
- (d) A demand for a poll maybe withdrawn.

Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares and to this Constitution:

- (a) on a show of hands, each Member present in person and each other person present as proxy, attorney or Representative of a Member has one vote; and

10.16 Joint Shareholders Vote

If a share is held jointly and more than one Member votes in respect of that share, only the vote of the Member whose name appears first in the Register counts.

10.17 Votes of Two Proxies or Attorneys

If a Member appoints two proxies or attorneys to vote in respect of shares held by the Member and both proxies or attorneys are in attendance at a general meeting:

- (a) only the first person named in the instrument appointing the proxies or attorneys or, if they are named in separate instruments, the person whose surname is earlier in alphabetical sequence, may vote on a show of hands; and
- (b) each proxy or attorney may exercise the votes in respect of those shares for which the proxy or attorney has been validly appointed (or which the proxy may exercise pursuant to the Corporations Act) on a poll.

10.18 Vote of Shareholder of Unsound Mind

If a Member is of unsound mind or is a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health, then the Member's committee or trustee or any other person who properly has the management of the Member's estate may exercise any rights of the Member in relation to a general meeting as if the committee, trustee or other person were the Member.

10.19 Vote of Minor

If a Member is a minor, the parent or guardian of that Member may vote at any general meeting upon producing such evidence of the parental relationship or of the appointment of the guardian as the Directors may require. - (d) the Member revokes the authority under which the appointment was made by a third party; or

10.22 Objection to Voting Qualification

An objection to the right of a person to attend or vote at the meeting or adjourned meeting:

- (a) may not be raised except before or at that meeting or adjourned meeting; and
- (b) must be referred:
 - (i) if the objection is raised before the meeting, to the Directors; and
 - (ii) if the objection is raised at the meeting, to the chairperson of the meeting, whose decision is final.

Subject to the Corporations Act, a vote not disallowed under the objection is valid for all purposes.

The Directors' fees are to be divided among the Directors in the proportion and manner agreed between them or, in default of agreement, equally. The Directors' fees accrue from day to day.

11.7 Additional or Special Duties

If a Director, at the request of the Directors, performs additional or special duties for the Company the Company may remunerate that Director as determined by the Directors and that remuneration may be either in addition to or in substitution for that Director's remuneration under Article 11.6.
